Two Aloha Temple Nobles
On Pilgrimage To Buffalo

In all parts of the United States and its insular possessions caravans are equipping and provisioning in preparation for pilgrimages. Some of these caravans will be very large and others will be of more modest proportions.
The destination of all of these pilgrimages is Ismailia Temple, at Buffalo, N.
Y., and the pilgrims are one and all Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. The occasion is the annual convention of that order of Masonry, and the dates will be July 11-12.

At some of the Shriner's temples preparations are yet in their earliest stages; at others, those farthest away, they are already well advanced. Two of Honolulu's delegates, two members of Aloha Temple, are now upon the mainland, and are already well upon their journey. These two are James S. McCandless and Thomas E. Wall.
It may be that other Nobles from Hawaii will be at Buffalo also, but this has not been announced. It is certain, however, that if there be any others from the islands now within pilgrimage distance of Ismailia Temple, the heads of their caravans will soon be turned in the direction of the city on the lake.

Honoluluans have seen gatherings of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, and have an idea of what the festive occasion means, but Honolulu is far from the mainland, and waters as well as hot sands have to be crossed to reach here, so that this city has never seen such a gathering as will convene in Buffalo. Ismailia Temple has announced that there will be spent in decorations and for the entertainment of pilgrims between $150,000 and $200,000, and plans have been made for the reception of the largest convention that the order has ever held in the United States. That means an immense gathering, and with the effervescent spirit of good-fellowship and jollity that ever pervades all Shriner's conventions, the occasion will be one that Buffalo will not soon forget and that will linger until death in the memories of the pilgrims. For Buffalo is a convention city, is an ideal meeting place, and its people are unexcelled for hospitality.

Neither of the two delegates from Aloha Temple, and whose pictures appear in these columns, require any introduction to Honolulu. In the business world and in the lodge world both are well known, and it is a certainty that Hawaii will be well represented by these two Nobles. Other temples will send larger caravans, but no delegates will be more representative of home temple and home community than will these two be of the islands that are at the crossroads of the Pacific.

The members of Harmony Lodge No. 4, Order of Eastern Star, will entertain at a card and dancing party this evening at the Outrigger Club pavilion, Waikiki, beginning at 8 o'clock.

An especially good time is promised those who attend. Those who do not dance may play cards, making their selection of auction bridge or whist.
Music for the dancing will be furnished by a Filipino orchestra, and refreshments in the form of ice cream cornucopias will be provided. Tickets are 50 cents each and may be purchased at the pavilion.

The following general committee is in charge of the arrangements: Miss Esther Fairweather, Mrs. L. T.
Bigelow, Mrs. Ruby Smith, Mrs. Norman Fairweather, Mrs. W. A. Wel-bourne, Arthur Myrhe, John Burns and Dr. Norman Fairweather.

Appropriate prizes will be awarded the winners at cards.

The Hawaiian lodges, O. E. S., were represented at the first annual meeting of the Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, recently held at Sarnia, Mich. Among those who delivered addresses at the opening session was Mrs. Fannie Krause of Honolulu.
